Treasured Verses

"The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations."

Psalm 145:9-13

A Message

From our brother, Amos Hartzler, of our Rittman church.

Dreadful threats for time and eternity, but also very encouraging instructions and promises how to escape and be relieved of all, not given by a human being, who will die and not be able to keep his promises, but from Him who could truthfully say, Unto Him is given all power in heaven and upon earth. Recently it was printed in the newspapers (although it is not advisable to devote too much time reading newspapers), still it is printed and placed before the public and feared that those dreadful bombs may be dropped onto many of our American cities, and it is advised that bomb-shelters should be prepared as a place of safety, which evidently causes great fear and anxiety in the hearts of many. But let us take the word of God which will be fulfilled without fail, When the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, the elements shall melt with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein shall be burned up. 2nd Peter Chapter 3, verse 10.

This we know will be fulfilled at the appointed time of the Heavenly Father.

And at that time no bomb shelter, nor any thing made or built by man will avail any thing, and here is where our dear Saviour's teaching be heeded, fear not them which have the power to kill the body but can do no more. But he said, fear Him who after He hath killed also has power to cast into hell, everlasting fire, and more impressive Yea I say unto you fear Him. Who suffered so intensely to redeem us.

Now He has prepared every thing, and a wonderful plan for us unworthy beings to escape all these terrible events, and we will be well provided for if we only heed and obey and accept His kind invitation, Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. etc.

St. Matthew 11:28-29-30.

But we dare not be careless nor negligent of our duties and his requests, as it will be a fearful thing to meet that Judge in an unprepared condition. And may every one give this very important matter a deep and solemn consideration and may the Lord give or add His blessing to the same.

“unto God my exceeding joy”

Henry Souder Jr.

A certain man had reached the exit from this life. In whispered words he said, “How beautiful God is.”

God is beautiful. His beauty is a color symphony of awesome grandeur.

“...from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.”

Our eyes on earth have seen the delightful views made with his Artist's Hand. He kindles the glittering diamonds of the night sky. Every little star has something to say about Him. He brushes the evening with His sunset colors.

But we have never looked upon God. He is wonderfully beautiful to look upon! Every one in heaven talks about His glory. The brightness about Him appears as the beautiful rainbow. His appearance is magnificently lovely. Blazing flames of beauty has this heavenly Father. He enriches all about with the heavenly glow of glorious hues.

“...how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty!”

Being happy is the joy of His children. The Spirit of glory glows in their inner dwelling with glorious Light. Real spiritual life has dawned in everlasting splendor. God reveals His greatness to His own.

They have found the secret of joy, and it is God. Without Him, it is impossible for joy unspeakable and full of glory to rejoice the heart. He is the Source of Life. He is joy and peace. To His own, He is all in all.

“Sing unto the LORD, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation.”

From darkest night to glorious light...that is real salvation. Only God could do it. His own see it and know the vast difference.

They see how dead was the slumber without God. They know how all life without Him is a casket. They know what it is to be alive from the dead.

The Cross... glorious it stands, showing God's greatness.

He came the way it was planned. But, oh, the love it took to drink that cup of suffering! Love, it truly passes knowledge.

God was worthy to be received with the finest of earth...He came from the heavenly homeland...was perfect in all that He did...

He clothed Himself with servant's clothes. He shouldered the iniquities that belonged to us. He died for us. Only such unutterable love could have taken such anguish.

“Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.”

Heavenly wonders unfold to the pure in heart. Friendship in this highest beauty reveals joys and dreams unknown before. Fellowship is the way of life of eternity. God's greatness is seen beautiful in His intimate love instilled in the family of Home.

Now Home is the place He provides. In its way contentment abounds. Our bodies are not home, but deeper, our hearts are. He has transformed us, and we will never be the same. We are built for eternity. We can only be satisfied with eternity.

“O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!”

The sun-bursts of dawn has indeed wrought Day. The clouds have passed away...the mid-night wandering has ceased. Now, with His Spirit, He carefully sculpts an inner likeness unto Himself.

Nor need we be startled by His mysterious ways. The wake of His will is storm-tossed for divine purposes. But the thunder of His almighty power shakes the darkest of nights. The glory of His love streams in the scorching heat of summer.

Our life's tremblings are His golden opportunities. He has methods eternal when He brings us through sorrow and pain, perplexity and distress.

"Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?"

Though their be pain and sorrow...

Just before eternity can be His soft twilight joy. He brushes it with the radiant colors of His delightful home-side. The love of morning without sorrow is a real life scene all His own. He breathes the joy of ageless splendor. He softly mellows the heart in rich contentment.

How delightful it is to sink back into His comfort. The heart thrills to the charm of Home. Here the happiness is ever-lovely. One who is of Home would rather be nowhere else. He indeed knows that this is life for ever.

"Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy:"

SOLACE

O Weary Soul, in sin beset,
Why dost thou sorrow, doubt or fret?
Unto thy Master go in prayer,
Upon thy knees, thou'lt find him there.
Surrender heart and soul and mind,
Then peace and comfort thou shalt find.

Pour out thine heart in humble plea
And Satan from thee then must flee.

Dale Hartzler

24th of August

Dear Brother Henry and Sister Alice
(Ed. Note: the last name is Beer)

As greeting in christian love across many miles of land and sea, I want to share my great joy with you. Last Sunday I was baptized. It has been my cherished desire these three years since God called me according to the Scripture. I was buried with our Lord, Jesus Christ, and now I am walking in newness of life.

The joy and the happiness that I received last Sunday with other 9 sisters and brothers was, is and will be the greatest thing on the earth. For I became a son of God; I joined to the biggest and peaceful family in which God is Father and you are brother and sister.

Christ said that he is the true vine and that we are branches. I believe the true vine gives the true water of life to the branches. My prayer tonight is that I, the branch of the true vine, may yield a great bunch of grapes in God's grace and that the all branches may grow longer and stronger to cover, to contain the whole world. You will not forget, please, to help in prayer for a baby brother who has just been reborn.

I know you want to know the all names who became the children of God last Sunday in Japan. These are Brother, Akira Utsuki, Sisters Haruko Saiyusa, kiyoko Asakawa who is church house keeper, Atsumi Satoyashi who has been S. S. teacher since you visited in Japan, Kayuko Hatsumi and Junko Hatsumi, Chisue Turuya, Stuneyo Misawa and Mari Uchida. Ten persons were baptized. It is very pity that I can not report the names of Hideko Maeyima and Sachie Tukayama as your and my sisters. Though they both repented earlier than I, yet they could not be baptized with us.

At last I ask you to pray to God for a small flock of sheep in Japan.

As wishing for you God's blessing

upon all your ways,
Your brother in our Lord
Yoshita - san.

P.S. forgive my mistakes in the English writing in this letter, please.

ROANOKE

The afternoon of August 31 the congregation was singing the beautiful wedding hymn, Zion's Harp 79. It was the marriage day for one of Jack and Lillian Leman's boys, Paul, and Sister Millie Haas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haas. Elgin was the church.

Brother Joe A. Getz asked that the last verse be sung for the father and mother of Paul, who were absent.

"This covenant shall then
Endure and stand forever;
There neither grief nor pain
Shall come to part or sever.
There God shall e'er abide
With us our truest friend,
Our hearts in Him unite
Forever, without end.

This mother of Paul, Sister Lillian, lived beautifully. She brushed along the path of the valley of the shadow of death . . . but left a glow for those following to take courage.

That night before the wedding, almost she died. The hours before were painfully plodded. Then, in the darkened hours, she seemed slipping. The pulse that had beat for 52 years could not be found. The family was called in. Yet she lingered.

The newlyweds stopped Sunday night. She was keen and aware and was pleased with her new couple. Where she lay was across from the southeast corner of the court house square. Around a half block from the hospital, east of the court house, were the future living quarters for her Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leman.

As time drew deeper into September, the parting hour became more nearly in evidence. As yet, the family had not spoken to her of the condition. They had lived close in the caresses of her heart.

And how dearly she loved the first two, for whom she yet knew their great need, who went in. Her eyesight was failing, but the press of her hand showed she was lovingly aware. It was a personal parting. To each she gave her love.

Nearing the end was beautiful. She responded to her son Bill's request to tell them when she sees Jesus.

Her face had been lined by the testing and suffering. Three great wrinkles grooved her forehead. Suddenly these cleared away. She had a wonderful view. It was Beautiful, Beautiful. Yes, she saw her Saviour, and told others. Even after this, utterances showed that someone and something marvellous was in view.

The moments were waning. She spent them in repeating beautiful hymns. "Never Alone" and "Blessed Assurance" gave her rich comfort. Then Tuesday evening, September 16, her life history reached her sum total.

Brother Dave Mangold read Psalm 91 in part. It was one of her favorites. She was laid to rest in the cemetery near the Prairie church she so loved.

Yet her life never ends. Here we call it history, but now she calls it eternity. Our Home is brought intimately more real, because Lillian is there. If we hold on, we shall enter that front door of His family someday, and find our Lillian waiting and smiling for us.

Gems to Cheer

For I consider all that we suffer in this present life is nothing to be compared with the glory which by and by is to be uncovered for us. For all nature is expectantly waiting for the unveiling of the sons of God. For nature did not of its own accord give up to failure; it was for the sake of Him who let it thus be given up, in the hope that even nature itself might finally be set free from its bondage to decay, so as to share the glorious freedom of God's children. Yes, we know that all nature has gone on groaning in agony together till the present moment.
